“ My kinfolk. I can still remember those Summers back in Georgia. You and your family would arrive around The Fourth of July. We would have a large Cook out with all our Cousins from both sides of our Family. Our Grandmother was so proud to see her Children's, Grandchildren's, other Relatives and Friends enjoying her food and having a ball. You were always the Boss of us kids. You would always read and tell us stories. Those memories and your beautiful smile i won't forget. Rest On My Beautiful Big Sister, that what you were to me. Much love from Mike COBB and Peta COBB of Melbourne, Australia.
