My Deepest Sympathy to you and your family Monica. Carolyn has played a major role in so many families lives helping us to wipe away tears and to be encouraged and be strong not forgetting the singing she poured her heart out to lift us up in praise so I say thanks for your dedicated service in our community for years. May you rest in heaven Carolyn take your heavenly wings and fly 🙏💗

My sincere condolences to this FAMILY, Carolyn will truly be missed! My prayer for y'all is that God will comfort, strengthen, and keep you all in His loving care during this your time of bereavement! One question, who's gonna sing THERE'S A LEAK IN THIS OLD BUILDING? Nobody can sang that like she could! 🙏

“ Carolyn Robinson McLendon, I miss you already. We communicated a lot on Messenger, every day. I was sitting beside you at the Class of 1974 Get Together at Ronnie Brown's house. We had a great time seeing Classmates we hadn't seen for awhile. Your silly comments kept us laughing. I remember you saying: The Class needs to see each, more often. Carolyn you said, " We don't know when our time will come." Your transition was and is a total shock to me and the Class of 1974. I tear up about you not being here with us. You knew God and would quote many of God's verses wherever you were in the community. Yes, I'm hurting and sad for your daughter and your family. But, we can't question God. Sing a lot in heaven! R.I.P.

“ Carolyn was MY CLASSMATE! There are NUMEROUS CLASSMATES that will say, She's MY CLASSMATE. Carolyn was a joyful and spiritual. She was one of Class of 1974, Comedians. She always kept you laughing if you were in her presence. Carolyn was a Spiritual Singer. She loved PEOPLE. Especially children. Carolyn had many talents. She will be missed. Carolyn left memories to help all to get through her transition to be with God. God Bless her family. Especially, her daughter, Monica! To all her sisters, God is with each one if you and will be forever. Carolyn, R.I.P.
