“ Debra you will never know how much you are missed. Not just by me but also the customers. I have seen lots of tears shed for you. Everyone was totally shocked by the news. You were such a good friend to me. Not only did you help me at the store but you would come by my house to check on me. And get breakfast from the church for me on Friday. You were the best and are deeply missed. I can only hope that you realized how much everyone loved you. You know the customers were always praising you on how good the store always looked. The love you had for your grandchildren was unmeasurable. Everyday you would have a story about one of them. The last time I spoke to you was the day before you went on the vent. The last thing you said to me was “ I love you Cindy “ I felt then you knew you were going. We will see each other again. Until then. I love you. You are the best. Cindy
