“ George was a fine brother-in-law who supported me by employing me and sharing his gift with me when I was a teenager. I really never learned how to lay carpet very well; it really wasn't my thing! But, he never discouraged me and paid me anyway--never offering an unkind word. He had a good sense of humor, and would laugh with you even after disagreeing with you over a passage of scripture. He loved the Lord, the church, my sister, their children and grandchildren. He is a man with a legacy. Rest well George! Continue to take comfort Ruth and all of my nieces and nephews that God will take care of you!

Love to you all,
Uncle Will, Aunt Vanessa, William & Victoria

“ Uncle Buddy, may your rest from this world and rise in God's grace be more than any man has yet to know on this earth. Just like the word says it will be.
May you see your family, my family, and sit around God's throne, together praising His name.
