Geraldine I will miss you. You were so sweet and kind to me when I first moved back home and rejoined Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church. Thank you my friend and I will see you again on the other side where we shall all be together praising and worshiping our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel about Geraldine's death. May the beauty live on in your memories and bring you and your family peace. Please know that you are in my thought and prayers.

Geraldine was such a shining star in my life, I'll miss her terribly.

*Good-Bye My Friend
Rest in Peace*

“ Parker/ Abraham and Faison family,
Look to hills from which cometh your help, for your help cometh from the Lord. Life on this side of death is only an introduction to the abundant life that God has promised us on the other side. We pray that God will comfort and keep you in your time of sorrow. Geraldine had a special place in the hearts of the Cobb and Cobb-Jackson family. She has joined Mrs. Queen, Nina C., and Sylvia Lee now and they are catching up.

Mrs. Geraldine was a wonderful person, always a Christian and a lady. While I have known her since before I knew myself, her daughter Sharon and I share the same birthdate. So I feel I have always known her. She had so much love and wisdom to share, and she didn't mind sharing it. Mrs. Geraldine I love you and I will miss you over at Mt. Zion Baptist. We know God loves you best, give Barbara Esther my regards. To her children, please remember the power behind us is greater than the task before us. Love You, Lavertis.

“ Mrs. Geraldine is my mother, friend and someone that I could talk to about anything. She is the person that I confided in, when things were difficult in my life. She would always pray. When I couldn't handle some of life's pressure, I would always call her and say " Mom I need you to pray." She would and things would change. I love her so much and are going to miss her dearly. She was a phenomenal woman, always accommodating for me and my friend, thru the good and bad. She always supported me thru everything. We were so blessed to have a mother like her. RIP mom, you are always and forever in our hearts and thoughts.

Sincerely,
Your Daughter Sandy!

“ Grandma, I will miss you dearly but I know it was time for you go on to heaven. I love you and I will do my best to strive for excellence in all things - first as a woman of God. You set such an example for me to live by and I really am grateful that God blessed me with you. Your legacy will live on in this family. You were the perfect grandmother for me. Every time I get sad about your transition I'm reminded by your wonderful smile and sense of humor. I love you
