

Ms. Jeaninne Brown

April 25, 1976 - June 22, 2024

Jeaninne Layon Brown was born on April 25, 1976, to Alnita Thames (Slaughter) and the late James Brown of Vero Beach, Florida. She was a beloved mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend.

On June 19, 2024, the Lord whispered in her ear “my child, it’s time to come home”. She’s leaving behind a legacy of love, kindness, and faith to her loved ones.

Jeaninne received her high school diploma from Vero Beach High School in 1994. She continued her education at Indian River Community College to become a Medical Assistant, receiving her certificate in Phlebotomy.

As a youth, she developed a love for God and attended Northside Agape Ministries Church of God. As an adult, she became a devoted member of Gathers of the Harvest Church and later returned to her home church at Northside.

Jeaninne had a deep love for animals, especially her two cherished cats, Whisper and Lynk. She was a loving mother to her son Ryan James Brown, who waited for her patiently in Heaven.

Jeaninne was preceded in death by her father James Brown, her son Ryan

James Brown, grandmothers Bessie Mae Brown and Johnnie Mae Slaughter, and grandfather Willie Otis Brown, Sr.

She is survived by her mother: Alnita Thames (Slaughter); sisters, Tanisha Brown (Lewell), LaVonya Harvey (Robert), and Tandy Schofield-Williams; brother, Stephon Schofield; nieces, Tiesha Brown, Trakayla Donley and Ashley Harvey; nephews, Robert Harvey Jr., LaVonte Harvey, and Tyler Donley; grandfather, Nathaniel Slaughter and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, family and friends.

Jeaninne will be remembered for her smile, kindness, generosity, and devotion to her family, and faith in God. May she rest in peace as she is reunited with her loved ones in Heaven.
