

Mr. Johnny Blayne Jennings

August 4, 1943 - December 14, 2025

Johnny Blayne Jennings, age 82, entered eternal rest on December 14, 2025.

He was born on August 4, 1943 in Vero Beach Florida to the late Johnny Jennings and Noretha Jennings Wright.

He lived a life rooted in faith, service, and devotion to family.

After graduating from Gifford High School, Johnny attended Florida A&M University and then took a leave of absence to serve in the military.

He joined the United States Army, where he served honorably for six years from 1963 to 1969. Following his military service, he returned to Florida A&M University and successfully earned his bachelor's degree in political science. He then continued his education at Howard University, where he obtained his law degree.

Johnny Blayne Jennings enjoyed a distinguished legal career spanning more than 40 years. He served honorably as an attorney under the Florida Bar Association before retiring with respect and distinction.

Even after retirement, he continued his professional contributions as a published author, immigration advocate, and policy expert. He is forever remembered for his tenure as a trusted legal expert in personal injury, immigration and civil law, as well as for his commitment to justice and advocacy for others.

Beyond his professional accomplishments, Johnny was deeply committed to service and community. A dedicated philanthropist, he generously supported causes that reflected his belief in fairness, opportunity, and helping those in need. His legacy is defined not only by his legal expertise, but by his compassion, integrity, and lifelong dedication to making a positive difference in the lives of others.

He enjoyed volunteering with several organizations that include Gifford Florida Youth Orchestra and Southern Christian Leadership Conference (Indian River County). He loved traveling, riding his motorcycle, singing, playing his trumpet and most of enjoying live music. His quiet wisdom, kindness, and willingness to help others left a lasting impression on all who knew him. A devoted Christian, Johnny was a faithful member of Corner Stone Church Christ Connecting Cultures where he served wholeheartedly in several ministries, including the Music Ministry and Men's Ministry. His love for worship and fellowship reflected his deep commitment to God and to serving others. Johnny cherished his family and took great pride in being a loving husband, father, and brother. His life reflected humility, perseverance, and faith, and his example will continue to guide those he leaves behind.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Johnny Jennings and Noretha Jennings Wright; his grandmother, Annie Mae Taylor; and his brothers, Milton Kent Jennings, Ronald Wade Jennings, and Nicholas Jennings.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Segundina Jennings; his stepchildren Felix Lopez Jr. of Philippines, Sarah Jean Lopez of Philippines, Hannah Dawn Lopez of Philippines, Ed Ryan Lopez of Philippines. His children with ex-wife Gloria Alridge Jennings of Indiantown, FL, Dr. JohnDre Jennings of Baltimore, MD, JBlayne Jennings (Latoria Jennings) of Bristow, VA and Jeremi Jennings of Vero Beach, FL; his sisters, Sandra Jennings Nichols of Miami and Areba (Lonnie) James of Vero Beach, FL; and his brother, Alan (Josephine) Jennings of Vero Beach, FL; three

(3) grandchildren Omari Taylor, Jayden Jennings and Mason Jennings and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will miss him dearly.
