“ Thinking of my Aunt Joyce...when I saw her over a month ago...I told her I wished I could take a nap. She told me I had better crawl on up on that bed with her and lay down. I kissed her face as I said a silent prayer.

Aunt Joyce was my Grandma's Baby Sister and we shared a special bond. when Auntie and her family wer living down south, in lauderdale, we lived in Miami; so auntie and her family were the closest family we had. We spent many happy times at the Apt. on Pembroke Road, where Aunt Joyce would look after me and my sister some days as our mom worked or attended school. Aunt Joyce was a poised and classy woman and a woman of God. She set us straight as children and as adults when we needed straightening....she was truly a role model for the women in our family. She and U ncle Billy gave my husband and I inspiration to be just like our Aunt and Uncle some day....happy and in love with each other. I will miss Aunt Joyce but I get joy in knowing that she is resting in the Lord....no more pain, no more worry of this troubled world. she showed us all and gave to us what we need to live our lives in a way that is pleasing unto God. Her Legacy lives on thru myself and many others. Our condolences and thoughts are with Uncle Billy, Nena , Chris, Nanette, Nikki, Anea, Christian, Janay, DJ, Troy and Family, Cynthia and all of my Aunties, Uncles, Cousins, loved ones and friends. we are praying for their strength thru this time of grief and sorrow. praying for Peace and Understanding. We love you all! Rest in Jesus Aunt Joyce.....we look forward to seeing you on the other shore. Amen
