*To the Colley family I'm praying for you. Gods mercy and grace is sufficient. Lori lived a beautiful spiritual life. She could captivate the attention of many because of her sweet spirit. She was always humble.
When you saw Lori she had a smile that indicated joy, peace, and happiness. She is not gone. She's just in another place. For she has left her legacy and fond memories to keep her around for years to come. God has your back family. Bless each one of you. You see I am family. I grew up in the Colley house. Louise was my mother when I was at the house. I am a sister to all of Lori's sisters. God is our

*St. John Baptist Church
2200 Effingham Street
Portsmouth, Va 23707*

To the Family of Dr. Lori Colley Ghent,

Specifically, Kia, Amari, Isaiah and my US Army Brother James, who have become as important to my family as if were blood relatives. It is with deepest sympathy that I attempt to share words of comfort at this time. In my experience the appropriate words sufficient to accomplish that goal has never come easy. In my earnest, yet feeble attempt, The Earls family and the members of St. John Baptist Church want you to know two important facts.

- 1) We love you with all of our heart.*
- 2) Earth has no sorrow (that the God in heaven which we serve) cannot heal.*

My deepest regret is the fact that none of us are able to physically be the with at this moment. But please know that our thoughts and prayers are center on you. We may not always understand the Will of God, But we must all somehow learn to accept his Will. After all, Father does know what is best.

To my surrogate niece Kia and your siblings, always remember that as long as you live and you have each other, you will always have and share your mother's love. Keep God's Word & Love in your heart. The pain of her loss will subside. No one will ever be able to replace her. But God will supply all of your needs. To my God given nephews Amari & Isaiah, I wish that I could be there to sandwich you in between your Paw Paw and myself. To reassure you that you are going to be ok. Paw Paw's love will surround you until I'm able to get there. And his cooking will keep you filled. I taught him well! (Smile). And to my Dear Brother James "Fatty" Buford, continue to be strong for the whole family. A role in which God design for you many years ago. And I will do the best that I can to be strong for you. That is how we have been since God brought our lives together 41 years ago. Nothing has changed. Charlie 9, 2.

To the remainder of the family, I may not know you. And you may not know me. And that is really not important. I just want you to know that there is someone in Virginia who knows and understands what you are going through. And who also wants you to know that prayers are being sent to heaven on your behalf.

But what is really most important is whether you know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior. And you are living and walking daily because of that personal relationship with him. The Bible reminds Christians in 2

Corinthians 5:10;

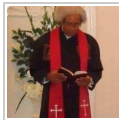

"For we must all appear ??before the judgment seat of Christ; ??that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad."

If we never meet in this life, I look forward to seeing you, when we see Jesus

Sincerely,

*Robert L. Earls
Pastor,
St. John Baptist Church
Portsmouth, Virginia*

“ My love and heartfelt sympathy goes out to the Ghent family. Lady Ghent (Lori) was such a beautiful person inside and out. She was a wonderful friend and confidant to me over the past few years. Even though she had struggles with her illness, she still remained faithful to her God. We miss her terribly, but we know that she is now in a better place . . . free from all pain and suffering! Those of us who remain, let's cherish the memories we have and thank God for the time we had together. Rest well my beautiful friend!

“ Satisfy us each morning with your unfailing love, so we may sing for joy to the end of our lives. Psalm 90:14
In school, we were taught lessons and then tested on what we should have learned. In life, we are constantly being tested by things that should teach us a lesson. Lori allowed the Lord to be her strength and her song and He has given her victory through all the testing she endured.

What can I say about such a lovely young lady. She was a loving, sweet. Kind, compassionate woman. She carried herself in a way that you knew respect was first and foremost. She was truly a woman of GOD and she lived life fully. Lori never accepted the situation as final, she had Faith to the very end. I have alot of fond memorys of her but the one thing i enjoyed the most was her smile It just simply made my day. To the family Lori will be missed on this EARTH but will live forever in OUR hearts. GOD has her in heaven and I know she's smiling down on each of you.
