“ Growing up I was spoiled rotten...didn't really have to want for anything...when my momma said no...i could always play on my dad and he would give it to me...whenever i needed help he and my momma was always there for me...He never called me by my name i was Shug...aka his Georgia Peach...we argued like brother and sister...but it was only bc i inherited his stubbornness...and even though we didn't see eye to eye he always wanted the best for me....This past year he hurted me and the ones he love the most...and it strained our relationship to the breaking point...Never would I thought Monday was the last time I would have seen you or heard your voice. Last night hit me like a ton of bricks...it still doesnt seem real...like a dream i haven't woke up from...and the only thing I am wishing right now is that i got a chance to say I forgive you and that no matter what I love you...This pain hurt beyond anything I have ever felt... I love you daddy
