“ Mother Wilson was a mentor in my younger days

A young mother 2 small children

We worked together at the gallnecks on 4th st Vero

She their housekeeper I was the nurse asst for gallnecks parents

She was kind humble on the job nevrerrr complained

She would listen to my problems and would always

Talk about JESUS

“ I only have fond memories of you Mrs. Wilson. You and grandma was good friends and I have known u almost my entire life. I'm so glad I took out the time to come to ur home and sit and talk with you when I could. I will always cherish our talks and most of all your sound advice. Thank you for always seeing the best in me. Thank you for your many prayers, I will never forget how much you loved me from a child to now. You never changed on me no matter what, You will always hold a special place in my heart Mother. You are the definition of A REAL WOMAN OF GOD. I Love You To Life Mother. Tell Grandma I Said Hi And That I Love Her. Heaven Has Gained Another REAL ANGEL.. Forever My  Your Gal Pamela...
