To the family of Robert McDougald my deepest sympathy-heart felt sympathy pours out to the family, for I remember Robert when I was a little girl in which is father knew my father "Buddy Ealy" and we use to play with Cora for the other were too big too play but I remember so much. I know it is hard to see a love one leave you for the Lord have a better place for that flower--and he wanted that flower in his garden and he called Robert home to be in that garden. Ms. Martha don't grieve for I know that your heart is full but God is there to lighten the load, be prayerful and look unto the hill for the Lord will guide and lead you. Be brave and strong for the others and lean on the everlasting Lord Jesus.
