

Mrs. Senella Gross

August 14, 1936 - January 29, 2025

Senella Glenn Gross was born on August 14, 1936 to the late Ernest and Emma Glenn. She accepted Christ at an early age. Senella was a longtime member of Community Missionary Baptist Church for over 40 plus years, where she served as the President of the Usher Board Committee. In 2024 she retired from her role as the Usher Board President but was initiated as an honorary member. Senella loved attending church and enjoyed fellowshiping with other Christians anytime the opportunity presented itself. Senella was employed as a private home maker for many years and brought an abundance of joy and love to the families she served. After retiring from many years of labor, she continued to care for others within her community. She loved to bake, and many residents within town knew her simply as “the cake lady”.

Senella was called to her final resting place on Tuesday January 28, 2025 at Indian River Medical Center- Cleveland Clinic.
