“ I had the pleasure of working with Ms Tangee at Sebastian Elementary school for several years. I loved talking with her and hearing her stories of her family. When I was pregnant with my first child, she gave me a piece of advice that I’ll always remember, “ Sleep now while you have the time, because after the baby gets here you might rest but you’ll never sleep again.” I know she meant that our children are always on our minds. It was clear upon speaking with Tangee that family was everything to her. May she Rest In Peace with the angels.

“ Tangee was a part of our family (Johnson) for most of her life. She was always willing to do whatever she could to help with anything and everything that was going on. She was always kind and supportive. She will be sorely missed.
