

Mr Willie Henry Williams

March 22, 1964 - May 29, 2014

Willie Henry Williams (Chilly Willie) was a jack of all trades and a master of none, but he got the job done. Over the last couple of years, he became fond of the phrase, "Send me 20, send me plenty." He loved to rhyme all of the time.

Willie was born on March 22, 1964, to the late Leroy and Ruth Williams. Willie passed away at age 50 on May 29, 2014. Willie leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, Kendra Smith of Vero Beach, and three brothers: Leroy Williams Jr. (Maxine) and Eric William both of Vero Beach, Alphonso Williams (Lucille) of Rolling Hill, GA, and Robert Williams of Baltimore, Md. He also had five sisters: Margaret Williams, Beatrice Holmes (Jimmy) and Virus Limorin (Gestra), all of Vero Beach, Gloria Shedrick (Joel) of St. Petersburg, FL, and Virginia Greene of Charlotte, NC.

He will also be missed by his loving Godmother, Annie R. Jenkins of Vero Beach, and his sister-in law, Elissa Davis. In addition, there are a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends left behind to remember him.

Willie was preceded in death by his grandmother, Elizabeth Wilson, parents Ruth and Leroy Williams Sr., two brothers, Howard Williams and Prince Davis, and sister, Majorie Whittaker.
